

Discover the past. Build the future.

Cork City Libraries Programme 2018

Exhibitions
Location	Time
Blackpool Library	10.00-1.00 & 2.00 -5.30 pm each day	"Cork through its people and places" Produced by The Shandon Area History Group
The City Library	10 – 5.30 Mon-Sat	HOME more or LESS in association with Focus Ireland.  This is the first public photographic exhibition of Sarah Rea from Cork. Having fallen into homelessness in 2016 Sarah has been a customer of Focus Ireland since. With no home of her own Sarah is wonderfully placed to capture the images of Home and share the story of what home means to all of our society in 2018.
The City Library	10 – 5.30 Mon-Sat	On The Banks An exhibition of contemporary Cork Poets from the anthology of the same name, edited by Alannah Hopkin
The City Library	10 – 5.30 Mon-Sat	Like Fighting with a Ghost: 'Spanish Flu' of 1918-1919 Exhibition detailing the pandemic that killed millions of people at the end of the First World War.
The City Library	10 – 5.30 Mon-Sat	Ordinary Women in Extraordinary Times An exhibition documenting the role played by a number of Cork woman in the revolutionary years 1916-1923. This exhibition is researched, compiled and produced by Shandon Area History Group
Douglas Library	10 – 5.30 Tues-Sat	Food from the Douglas Farmer's Market A photographic exhibition by Azem Koleci
Douglas Library	10 – 5.30 Tues-Sat	From Borrowed Space to Cyber Space Celebrating 125 Years of Public Libraries in Cork City
Hollyhill Library	10-5.30 Tues-Sat	Famine in Cork City An exhibition of Europe's worst disaster of the 19 th century as it affected Cork
Mayfield Library	10-5.30 Tues-Sat	War is Women's Business A Snapshot of Everyday Life for the Women of Cork in 1917/18 focusing on theatre, newspapers and popular journals
Saturday 18 August
The City Library	12.00-1.00 pm	Cork Film Festival showcase of our online library: at the forefront of championing short film in Ireland, for the past 20 years the festival has paid special attention to the new voices emerging from the vibrant and growing film making community in Cork. Experience our Audio Visual Access which enables audiences to enjoy short films that screened at Cork Film Festival, for free, all year round at a viewing booth in Cork City Library.

The City Library	12 noon	Getting Started on your Family Tree a talk by David Ryan from Cork Genealogical Society
The City Library	2.00 pm	Traveller History and Culture; stories of our heritage, culture and traditions presented by the Cork Traveller Women's Network and the Traveller Visibility Group
The City Library	3.30 pm	Cork's fire and rescue services An illustrated talk on the its origins and development by retired member Pat Poland.
Hollyhill Library	12pm	Cork singer songwriter Dave Burke, live music session in the Lightwell Gallery

Tuesday 21 August

Location	Time	Event Title & Description
Blackpool Library	3.00 pm	"Place names in Blackpool , Cork City" . Presented by author Tom Spalding. Based on his book "Layers"
The City Library	7.00 pm	Like Fighting with a Ghost: 'Spanish Flu' of 1918-1919 Launch of an exhibition detailing the pandemic that killed millions of people at the end of the First World War. With a talk on the Pandemic in Cork by independent researcher Lynn Buckley
Tory Top Library	11.00 am	Traditions of the Past- are they lost forever? Come and share memories of growing up and living in Cork in the 1960's and '70's with Liz O'Donoghue.

Wednesday 22 August

Location	Time	Event Title & Description
Hollyhill library	11.30 am	'The Orthopaedic': An Oral History, including audio segments presented by Kieran Murphy, Cork Folklore Project.
Mayfield Library	11.00 am	The Dillons Cross Ambush; A talk by Brendan Goggin

Thursday 23 August

Location	Time	Event Title & Description
The City Library	7.00 pm	Settlement by the Lee: Hiberno Norse Cork Lecture by Dr Maurice F. Hurley The first lecture in the Autumn Series; Mapping the Lee – Stories of the River.
Bishopstown Library	11.30 am	History and Horticulture: The Hartlands of Cork A talk by Catherine Coakley
Hollyhill Library	3.00 pm	Irish newspaper archive information session

Friday 24 August

Location	Time	Event Title & Description
The City Library	10.00am	Find out how easy it is to access the Irish Newspaper Archive

Saturday 25 August

Location	Time	Event Title & Description
The City Library	3.00 pm	Logic.Exchange.Grassroots ; from Language of Life: Language of Humanity project by Maria Wojdylo Kelly A journey of storytelling about the land and butter exchange (hear and see how butter is made), photos of nature, spoken word performance, movement and sounds, and interactive installation.
Hollyhill Library	2.00 pm	Cork singer songwriter, Tony Manning live music session in the Lightwell Gallery
Tory Top Library	2.00 pm	Cork Folklore Project (Ballyphehane 1916-2016 Group) An afternoon of Ballyphehane Reminiscences for young and old alike. All welcome